2018-2019 Transformed Post-Baccalaureate Scholars Program for Undergraduate and Post-Baccalaureate Students

About the Program: Baylor College of Medicine’s Center of Excellence in Health Equity, Training and Research Scholars Program provides opportunities for selected undergraduate/post-baccalaureate students including

- coursework in the biological, physical and social sciences
- academic and career preparedness including test prep
- research and clinical exposure opportunities
- $1500 stipend

Partial List of Eligibility Requirements (see website for full details): Applicants must

- be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident
- be a junior, senior or post-baccalaureate student
- be from an eligible underrepresented minority population
- be recommended by their school’s pre-health/medicine faculty advisor
- have completed all prerequisite college-level courses (see program website)
- have a cumulative GPA & Biology-Chemistry-Physics-Math GPA of a 3.0

Program Length: 12-months period (July 2018 through June 2019)

Program Location: Houston, Texas (Baylor College of Medicine main campus)

Visit our website for more info: https://www.bcm.edu/about-us/diversity-inclusion/health-equity/health-equity-training-research-center/scholars/tpp

Application Deadline: Friday, March 23, 2018 (extended from original March 2nd deadline)